Ad Text A new report showed that West Virginia and 11 other states have to the highest percentage of children with a parent who is or was incarcerated. Can you believe these numbers?

Of course, the highest incarceration level is among the black population of the country. The system is enslaving us with the help of the jails and it affects the whole community. Kids have to grow up not knowing their fathers and not having the support they need to make rights choices and school-to-prison pipeline doesn't leave them much of a choice. The kids grow up in extreme poverty without the access to the basic things like healthcare or education.

The system is build to keep as many black people in the jails as possible. Being black in the US means being in a constant danger! You never know when you will be killed or sent to prison, because of the color of your skin.

I've never heard white media talking about it, do you?
